Ggwangamujje Announces Ttabamiruka '10

New York, USA (PR) September 1, 2009 – Ggwangamujje NY/NJ, Inc. has announced Ttabamiruka '10, an International Baganda conference outside Buganda, to take place over the American Labor Day holiday of September 3-6, 2010 in New Jersey, USA. The venue and program will be posted on the conference website, www.ttabamiruka.com.

After two highly successful conferences in 2007 and 2008, Ggwangamujje was unable to hold Ttabamiruka '09 because of the global financial crisis.

The official theme of Ttabamiruka '10 has not been decided on yet. However, the Chairman of the Organizing Committee, Mr. Edward Semambya, has provided some insight into the conference plans. He stated that, "Kabaka Mutebi has done a great job of providing leadership and guidance to Baganda during extremely difficult times. The Baganda in the Diaspora would like to express their gratitude to him.

Mr. Semambya continued that, "although it is still too early to talk about the program and dignitaries, Ttabamiruka '10 will provide unprecedented international exposure for Kabaka Mutebi and our Kingdom."
